Once your packet has been received you will be contacted by the UREC Fitness/Wellness staff within 7 business days of your registration in regards to matching you with a UREC Personal Trainer. Once paired with a UREC Personal Trainer a fitness assessment will be scheduled based on trainer and client availability.

The trainer and client matching process will depend on trainer & client availability. Please thoroughly fill out your availability on the registration form. All efforts will be made to match clients with preferred trainers, availability may prevent specific trainer assignments.

What your trainer can expect from you

All sessions must be utilized within six months of purchase or they are void. Any sessions that remain unused for any reason will not be refunded. Cancellations not made 24-hours in advance of the scheduled session will be forfeited by the client. Please provide responsive communication and notify your trainer of any changes in contact information.

Your trainer will ask about any conditions of concern indicated in your health history. In some cases, a physician clearance may be requested.

In order for your trainer to maximize your time together, please be physically prepared to start your session by completing any necessary warm-up ahead of your appointment.

Personal Training

The UREC Personal Training program is devoted to helping you accomplish a number of different fitness goals whether it be developing an exercise plans, staying motivated, or overcoming fitness plateaus.

Personal Training Sessions: One-hour sessions with a certified personal trainer. New clients must purchase a Starter Package which includes an assessment and 1 additional session. Clients wishing to incorporate fitness assessments into their training sessions may utilize one session as an assessment at any time.
Fitness Assessments: Fitness assessments address any health-related concerns and set forth goals to start new exercise programs. Physiological testing is also done to determine baseline measurements, identify areas for improvement, assess progression, and educate the client.

The following may be included in the Fitness Assessment:

Physiological Testing: Physiological measurements will include blood pressure, resting heart rate, body fat %, segmental lean muscle analysis, and resting metabolic rate.

Equipment used:

InBody: This machine looks at a client’s individualized body composition profile and provides you with a measure of lean muscle mass, body fat mass, body fat % and segmental lean analysis. (Sample InBody sheet below)

Cardiovascular Testing: The submaximal talk test could be used to measure your aerobic baseline. A client’s aerobic baseline is important for setting up a cardiovascular training program.

Movement Testing: A variety of different movement screenings will be performed to assess a client’s mobility through movements that are required in a client’s daily activities of living.

Performance Testing: Performance testing will be based on the clients and at the discretion of the trainer and client. Example: Client interested in resistance training could test their 4 rep max on primary lifts. Example: Client interested in cardiovascular performance could test their mile time.
